McCain Vegetables Helps Make Flower Show Success

A display of vegetables raised in the gardens of Camp McCain assisted greatly in helping to make the County wide annual flower and vegetable show a great success in Grenada County last week.

The Commanding Officer of Camp McCain, Colonel Ira E. Ryder, was notified by Velma Neely, Home Demonstration Agent of Grenada County, that the Camp McCain display was placed in the center of the auditorium, the baskets making a "V" shape with other vegetables and flowers, and received the first Blue Ribbon placed on any display at the show.

Many commendatory expressions were made relative to the Camp McCain display as the reviewing party passed by and judged the attractive presentation.

Thirteen Complete Red Cross Life Saving Course

Thirteen people completed on June 24, 1943, the Red Cross Life Saving Course held under the sponsorship of American Red Cross and USO-NCOS. The people who completed this course under the direction of Miss Gertrude Bouchard, Red Cross Safety Instructor, will receive cards and emblems showing that they are qualified Life Savers.

The GCW owns about thirty feet of land between its building and the Grenada Clinic. It is now about half filled with empty gallon jugs, and rapidly increasing. These jugs will hold oil, buttermilk, sorghum, and other things that you might visualize.

Just For Fun

(By Favorite Correspondent)

Last week we spent in Camp Claiborne, La., visiting the old father. The soldier-givers here in McCain, blessed with a thorough system of fine paved roads that will last longer than this war, ought to do just a three day tour in dust covered Claiborne, and they'd return to Mississippi with thanksgiving. Only the main thoroughfare is really paved there, and the soldiers have to walk miles in the dust to even get to the gate of camp. And the best the Officers' Club can boast of is a drive of crushed oyster and clam shells!

Many changes had occurred since we left. The good Major Barksdale had gone to Edgewood Arsenal, Maryland, for several weeks schooling to brush up on his Chemistry.

The mail service for the Army Air Base is all handled through the main office in Grenada.

The postmaster is Donald Sharp, and associated with him is an active personnel of forty-six capable employees.

Horn At Bainbridge

Having completed pre-flight and primary training, Robert H. Horn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Horn, of Grenada, Miss., is now assigned to Basic flight training at the Bainbridge Army Air Field as an aviation cadet.

Cadet Horn, who joined the Air Forces on August 11, 1942, is a former student of Millsaps College, and later attended the University of Mississippi.

Bishop Gray To Preach Here Sunday

Bishop Dupean Gray, newly consecrated bishop of the diocese of Mississippi will preach at the eleven o'clock service at All Saints Episcopal Church on Sunday, July 4. A class will be conducted. The public is cordially invited.

117 Men Of 87th Division Receive Diplomas

One hundred and seventeen men of the 87th Infantry Division proudly received their "diplomas" from Major General P. W. Clarkson, Division Commander Saturday, indicating their successful completion of eight weeks of learning as students of the Division's Opportunity Schools. The courses covered subjects such as reading, writing and history and current events.

The Opportunity Schools of the 87th Infantry Division, under the supervision of Lt. Maurice P. Beck, Division Personnel Consultant, are conducted three evenings a week from 7:00 to 8:00 in building especially set up for class room instructions. Teaching the various other subjects is part of the tremendous constructive job undertaken by Army to educate thousands of physically fit men to read, write and spell English. The graduates of this course have received an educational equivalent to four years of schooling which is the minimum requirement in order to be a member of the United States Army. This means that thousands of men who will make excellent combat soldiers are now available for military duty.

The instructors of the 87th Division Opportunity Schools are selected from ranks of enlisted men according to civilian experience. The majority of them were teachers and school principals before their induction into the Army.

The students who are attending these schools are from many states and several foreign countries. Seated side by side you will find a tall, sturdy coal miner from Pittsburgh and a farmer from Tennessee; young soldiers from the Rio Grande country of Texas and dark eyed lads from Poland and Russia. Men from big cities such as New York and Chicago study with intense and serious students who came from Germany and Italy and France only a few years before the war. Several Chinese men are also members of these classes.

These young soldiers of General Clarkson's "Acorn Division," who during the day drill and train with rifles, bayonets and hand grenades, eagerly set their weapons of war aside on school nights and pick up their pencils and books. Outside the tramp of feet leads to the Post Exchange and movies, while laughing conversation of other men, who are headed for the Service Club, floats through the open window. But all this does not interfere with the task of learning how to read and write. They want to learn so that they may write their families back home. Disregarding all outside noise they sit on the wooden benches and pay strict attention to the instructors.

And so it is that many young Americans are learning to play a better role to help preserve their country. "They are," in the words of General Clarkson, "Equipping themselves to become better citizens and are qualifying themselves to better serve their country."

Mr. Eugene McGahey Working With Health Department

Mr. Eugene McGahey, Superintendent of the Gore Springs School, is now working with the County Health Department in Malaria Control. He was recently a part of 100 teachers from 13 Southern States and representatives from three South American countries who took part in a two-week course in malaria control in Memphis, where every phase of this subject was explored.

Mr. McGahey will transmit this information to group meetings over the county, such as H. D. Meetings (both white and colored) 3-H meetings, and club meetings in the towns, with the hope that some of the vital information about this highly important subject be spread as rapidly and as efficiently as possible.

For example, do you know that our servicemen in some parts of the South Pacific area are contracting a type of malaria, swelling the limbs and heads, for which no cure has yet been found; and that this obscure disease can be transmitted by a mosquito from the affected soldier to YOU and ME?

The subject is important. Have Mr. McGahey meet with you. Contact him at the County Health Department in the Health Building.

Mrs. Grant's Brother Died In Blackburn, Va.

Mrs. George Grant, with her sister, Mrs. G. L. Nickles, of Batesville, left last Thursday for Blackburn, Va., to attend the bedside of their brother, Mr. Nathaniel Spears, who has been very ill for several months. Mr. Grant received a telegram from his wife Tuesday, stating that Mr. Spears died Monday night.

Mr. Spears lived all his life, except the past six months, which were spent in Virginia, at Orrwood, Miss., north west of Water Valley, Miss. He was that type of man whom people honored by saying his word was as good as his bond. He was a leader in his community, an elder in the Presbyterian Church and one of the finest Southern gentlemen the writer ever knew. Our sympathy is extended to his loved ones at this dark hour.

Thru a Woman's Eye

I really enjoyed it." Dorothy will be home in September for three weeks then return to her studies to graduate in February.

Last Sunday was unusually noisy in Grenada. The noise started early with folks blowing their horns several times at each stop, as they picked up fellow passengers going to camp for work. The buses running steady all day screamed their brakes (does that wear out tires or not?) trying to stop at the street crossings, filling everyone's home with that horrid pungent odor from hot motors.

Little boys sitting idly on front porches forever blowing old worn out horns with all the energy of the young and all that they could muster, only later they mounted their bicycles and gave a blast from the horn at every house they passed.

There is a definite danger in stray dogs who are thirsty enough to lap water from the street drains—as I saw three dogs doing at the intersection of South and Line, Tuesday morning. It's better to kill dogs than to neglect or mistreat them like some people do.

(Although this did not happen Sunday, it did happen Tuesday). Little boys with an air rifle in their hands, shooting at our beloved red birds, (known as cardinals) our robins and our mocking bird songsters, are a definite source of danger in crowded neighborhoods, especially to other children, and it's a great pity they are not compelled, by their parents, to consider other people's rights, and taught to conserve, instead of destroy our lovely birds. Following the line of least resistance with children makes careless, often cruel grown up people of them.

No wonder I felt like weeping when I read what J. Edgar Hoover said about our American young people in his splendid press release in Sunday's paper.

Lessons In Anti-Aircraft Gunnery For Employees

Workers at Grenada Industries had two opportunities Tuesday at 10 and 3, to view the Orellin anti aircraft 20mm gun used by the navy, to see its operation, so far as it could be operated with live ammunition, and to hear from the lips of two chief gunner's mates the story of the effectiveness of these modern weapons against the Japs in the Southwest Pacific. By these visual and verbal explanations the workers at the plant could visualize how important their work in making projectiles for these guns are.

Flagged by the United States flag and blue and white USN pennant, this gun, mounted on a truck, was an impressive sight, particularly when the sailors, assisted by two of the young lady employees there, maneuvered the gun from one firing position to another.

Mr. H. Solar, manager of the plant, introduced the sailors, Gunner's Mate L. H. Vories and Marcus Phelps, and each, in turn, gave blunt, but vivid word pictures of the terrible accuracy of these guns, of personal experience in the loss of the Yorktown, of abandoning ship and being picked up. Each of these sailors gave particular emphasis that they, as all fighting men in contact with the enemy, MUST be backed up at home by such people as those in their audience; that their efforts would be ineffective if either quantity or quality of ammunition were sub-standard.

The speakers stated that, at last the sailors, the soldiers and the marines were together in this grim business of war, even if, in peace time, soldiers, sailors and marines, when together, were either fighting, getting ready to fight or just finishing up fighting—each other.

This unit is visiting the various plants of the nation where parts of and ammunition for this weapon are being made.

Swimming Classes Started Tuesday Morning

Swimming classes for both adults and children were started on Tuesday morning at the Municipal Swimming Pool. These classes are sponsored by the National Catholic Community Service Agency of USO.

The classes are both for beginners who wish to learn how and for swimmers who would like to learn more about swimming. The children come from 9:30 to 10:30 and adults from 10:30 to 11:30 every Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Morton Wayne, a qualified Red Cross Water Safety Instructor, is the teacher for these classes. Anyone who wishes to come is cordially invited to join the group.

Well, by good luck and the indulgence of our creditors, we have got it another first of the month.

In walking down the street with the old lady, I want to follow the example of the soldiers and their girls by holding hands, but she won't let me.

Walls who are complaining of the heat should remember that this is only July 1st. We have all of July, all of August and most of September to look forward to—which is not a lively prospect.

As we are working with reduced forces, we solicit some simple methods of cooperation from our friends: write briefly and to the point get matter in early, do not wait until Thursday; note your expiration date on your copy and pay up when your time expires; The "dead line" on ad copy is Wednesday noon; anticipate your needs for job printing so that we will not be asked to make delivery either yesterday or tomorrow. Hereafter, we had plenty of help and did not have to have many rules. Conditions, having changed, we must have regular system.

Another thing: we have no space for long-winded mimeographed propaganda from some far off bureau or organization. We are going to have hard enough time getting in the home news.

Only foolish optimist and wishful thinking are based on saying the war will be over soon. The war has just started.

Had a postal card from Billy Hayward who is somewhere in North Africa. I wonder if he has initiated his fellow soldiers into the game of moon.

The best sign I have seen for Mike Connor is that Raf Smith and Wells are for him. They are the seldom miss kids, the Wells' feet did slip in the latest senatorial election.

Speaking of Mike Connor, he will speak in Grenada Tuesday night, July 6 at 8-10 o'clock. He is a candidate for governor, in case you have forgotten.

Help keep Horn out of devilment. "Fat chance," I hear Horn say, "of me getting into any devilment."

We are sorry we did not have space to print the county audit last week, but it was just naturally crowded out.

To help relieve the seating situation, the Barwin Hotel has already installed a bunch of neat benches, and will install a good many more. It is a shame that, with the vacant space available, soldiers have so little room to sit and talk with their wives or sweethearts. The Barwin is to be congratulated on helping relieve the situation. If the couples upon a little, what's the hell's the difference?—you cannot stop that. Have you ever been young and full of pep and vinegar?

FIRST-AID to the AILING HOUSE

By ROGER B. WHITMAN

You may not be able to replace worn or broken household equipment. This is war. Government priorities come first. So take care of what you have... as well as you possibly can. This column by the housewife's friend tells you how.

STORING PAINT

A reader has sent in the following: "When preparing a partially empty can of paint for storage, first clean all paint from the sealing surfaces of the can and lid to insure an airtight closing of the lid. To prevent the trapped air in the can from evaporating the paint solvent, shake the can vigorously for a few seconds to saturate the trapped air thoroughly with the solvent. Thus, when the can is stored the air cannot absorb any more solvent and film cannot form. Stand the can upside down for storage, so that the joint around the lid will be sealed."

Condensation on Walls

Question: Some time ago my stucco house was brick-venered. No air space was left between the walls. During rainy or humid weather the walls sweat and stain the wallpaper. Is there a preparation which can be applied over the plaster to prevent sweating? If so, can the walls be painted or papered over this solution?

Answer: No kind of paint will stop the condensation. The answer to your problem is insulating board applied over furring strips to provide the air space that now is lacking and to minimize differences in temperature. It will help to dry out the air of the house if you leave the fireplace damper open during rainy weather. Additional ventilation also would help.

Turning Circle for Cars

Question: What is the minimum diameter necessary for a turning circle in front of our house to accommodate any type of car? We plan to make an island in the center containing an old millstone.

Answer: For large passenger cars the radius of the outside curb should be 35 feet, and the radius of the inside curb 10 feet. This will accommodate small trucks.

Finish for Shingles

Question: The wood shingles on the walls of our house were put on ten years ago and now are in need of attention. One painter advises restaining, another suggests painting. Which do you recommend?

Answer: After ten years the stain undoubtedly is weathered out of the wood, and the shingles either can be painted or stained. The choice of the finish is up to yourself.

Fireplace Plans

Question: Where can I get plans for building a stone fireplace for a frame cottage?

Answer: I do not know of any publication for this. But you can get ideas by looking over back issues of Better Homes and Gardens, American Home, and similar publications, which have many illustrations of fireplaces. You can see back issues at your public library.

Oil in Fine Passages

Question: I have heard that spraying the fine passages of a boiler with oil will prevent rusting during the summer months. But won't this oil cause an explosion when the heat is turned on in the fall?

Answer: Not unless the fine passages are soaked too heavily with oil. Running a low fire for a half hour or so will evaporate the surplus oil.

Remodeling

Question: Where can I get leaflets on the remodeling of old houses?

Answer: Send five cents to the Superintendent of Documents, Washington, D. C., and ask for Farmers' Bulletin No. 1746, which has the title "Modernizing Farmhouses." You can also get information from your local office of the Federal Housing Administration.

Preparing to Paint

Question: I wish to paint our window frames on the outside, and am rather pressed for time. The frames are quite dirty. What is the quickest way of cleaning them so that I can paint them immediately after?

Answer: It might be enough just to brush the dust off. If not, you could use a wire brush and wipe with turpentine.

Cracked Boiler

Question: Can a crack in a cast-iron boiler be welded satisfactorily?

Answer: Yes, it can be. You can get a mechanic with a portable welding outfit to come and do the job. Inquire of a heating contractor, a steamfitter or a plumber.

Protecting Tools

Question: How can I keep my tools from rusting? I keep them in both a metal and wooden toolchest in a damp basement.

Answer: After using, rub them all over with vaseline. Before using again, wipe well.

SNAPPY FACTS ABOUT RUBBER

A chain of rest stations is rising across northern Brazil along the route of workers trucking into the Amazon Basin gateway of Belém to increase collection of wild rubber. They provide medical aid and other human comforts to the 50,000 additional workers being recruited for the Amazon rubber forces.

The rubber normally used in one month's manufacture of baby pants can make 2800 rubber lifeboats for ocean-going planes.

A check of 7,300 farm-owned trucks showed that only 23 per cent of the tires on these were good; 34 per cent were fairly and 21 per cent were in poor condition.

Household Hints

For a spring dessert how about rhubarb shortcake? Serve rosy rhubarb sauce over slightly hot biscuits made with a bit of sugar added to flour.

Frozen meats should not be thawed before cooking. Soaking them to hasten defrosting impairs the flavor.

A piece of wax tied in a rag, and rubbed over the hot iron before ironing, will help it to run along smoothly, and prevent its sticking.

Mayonnaise used on sandwiches should be thick enough to prevent its running out at the sides.

A cloth dipped in linseed oil and wiped over a polished surface will improve the appearance.

Cut two large apples and one lemon into slices without removing the peel. Add three ounces of sugar and one or two cloves. Pour over this a quart of boiling water, cover closely, and leave until cold.

The setting of a jelly can be hastened by placing the mold in a pan of cold water.

When pickling onions, if you are using white vinegar, a few drops of sweet oil of almonds added to each jar will help to keep them white.

Admirals may be admirable, but that isn't where the word comes from. It comes from an old Arabic word "amir-al" meaning "commander of." That's what the Admiral is, the top-ranking officer in the Navy. Top-ranking officer with our Navy men is Captain—the favorite, too with men in the Army, Marines, and Coast Guard, according to their service stores. Camels are a top-ranking gift, too. And though there are Post Office restrictions on packages to overseas Army men, you can still send Camels to soldiers in the U. S., and to men in the Navy, Marines, and Coast Guard wherever they are.

Colorful Woven Rags for Your Rugs And Cushions Proves Sound Economy

MANY an American of pioneer background can remember when all the floors in the house except the parlor were covered with woven rag rugs and carpets. Today the local weaver with a rug loom is flourishing in many communities.

The modern weaver has an assortment of colors in warp and filler that may be used with the rags that you have prepared in the manner shown here. About one and three quarter pounds of sewn rags will be required for a square yard of carpet. Rugs may be either cotton or wool but do not use both in the same rug. The rags should be soft and clean and hairs or uneven finishes should be removed. Dye white rags the colors you wish to predominate.

NOTE—It is possible to make a great variety of floor coverings from odds and ends of things on hand. Books 9 and 10 of the series offered with these articles contain fascinating new designs for hooked and braided rugs. In Book 7 there is a rug made from old felt hats and school pennants. ## A Business Proposition

I imagine it is true that Mike Conner, when he was governor, did shut the door so that he could look after the business of the entire state instead of devoting his time to job-seekers, advice-givers and merely social callers. Included in those who saw a closed door, no doubt, were men who have worked mightily for Mike Conner. It is probably true that some people made a trip to Jackson to see the governor, and did not see him, and went home mad as hell. Perhaps a lot of them got mad because Mike would not give Sonny a job (for which Mike did not deem him suitable) as rider at Parchman. Perhaps Mike, in protection of the rights of original owners, did not sign land patents very promiscuously. These job-seekers and these land-seekers went home very angry.

Do you get mad and STAY mad at Henry Ray or Ben Adams because a loan based on doubtful security was denied. Would you get mad if you jumped on No. 4, went to Chicago to see Jack Berens and, upon arrival at his office, found that he could not see you, being engaged in business which had priority over yours? On the contrary, you would finally arrive at the conclusion that Ben Adams and Henry Ray were looking after other people's money and that they should handle it safely. You would finally realize that Jack Berens, as the executive of a vast railroad system, allocated his time very carefully, and often far in advance, and that he could not receive an unannounced and unexpected visitor at the latter's convenience. If you could forgive Messrs. Ray, Adams and Berens for looking after the business, in a systematic manner, that was entrusted to them, then why hold it against Mike Conner that you could not bug right into his office without appointment and without announcement, while Mike was engaged in the business of the WHOLE STATE, the business he was elected for?

Be reasonable.

In The Meantime The Soldiers Suffer

Following a little airing-out of the delay and inefficiency that have characterized the work of the USO-FSA in Grenada, Mr. Shackelford, of the Jackson FSA office came to the office of this newspaper and admitted that the Grenada job had been badly bungled, but that he HOPED that some legal smart affecting title to some property for the negro USO would be straightened out shortly, and work would begin.

We sincerely hope for the soldiers are the individuals who are suffering from the results of this bungling.

Personally, I was in the last war about two years, never saw a USO building and never heard of one, and did not know the difference. But the USO is supposed to be a national organization, giving the same, or similar service to the soldier in Grenada and Chicago, Savannah and Seattle.

Without the USO, without recreation buildings, without theatres, without so many furloughs, and with proper clothing and less pay the United States Army of 1917-1918 made the Germans yell "calt rope" in 20 months, while the army of today in about 19 months has made darn little progress toward final victory. It might be that the old system of making a soldier a soldier was better than making him a dancer, a theatre goer, a boxer and a furlough hound.

Be that as it may, the soldiers in the Grenada area are entitled to a break and they should get it from the USO and from the FSA.

What's Happen To The Postal Law?

I was informed last week by the postmaster at Grenada that "Only ten percent of yearly mailings to subscribers can be mailed to non-subscribers at second-class rates", and that other copies must be mailed either or by affixing one cent in stamps for each two ounces in weight, or getting a permit (costing $10.00), and using this printed permit on the wrappers—just as the Publishers' Auxiliary has always done and paying 1 cent a copy.

Howthehell do Bob Brown and Dennis Murphy get by with sending tens of thousands of copies of the summer Sentinel to non-subscribers, is a question that should be answered.

Why Increase The Fare?

Within the past ten days the bus fare from the bus station to points in Camp McCain has been increased from 15 cents to 25 cents. Heretofore, a passenger could ride from Grenada to any point, over which the bus passed, for 15 cents; now he can ride to the bus station at the camp for 15 cents, and must pay 10 cents more to ride to the place nearest his destination.

I imagine this increase has the sanction of the Public Service Commission, or of some competent authority, but I can not see why circumstances justify an increase of two-thirds. The increase, so far as the layman and the soldier were concerned, came out of the clear sky. Certainly expenses of operation have not increased by two-thirds; certainly the service has not improved by two-thirds.

Then, why the increase is a question that is being asked by many people.

The Do-Gooders

This area never had any "race trouble" prior to the Eleanor Era and, fortunately, has had none yet. All the good white folks and all the good negroes hope we will never have any trouble. The negro and the white man have lived together in this area for over a hundred years and there has NEVER been any "race trouble." Let's be fair about this matter. To whom does the negro go when he needs a dime, a dollar or a hundred dollars. To whom does he go when he needs a doctor, or when he needs help furnished to get him out of jail? Does he go to some do-gooder who has just arrived from Chicago, to some member of his own race, or to some of his good white friends? When he gets into a "jam", to whom does he turn for help?

In the past, it is true that there have been lynchings of negroes known to have committed heinous crimes, but there has not been a lynching in the South this year, and none in Grenada in over 45 years. Lynching has just gone out of style. But, even in the era of lynching, ONLY the guilty were punished. In the North, when trouble breaks out between the whites and the negroes, all negroes look alike—the innocent and the guilty, the young and the old—to the infuriated whites.

I invite the "holier than thou" do-gooders of the North who seek to foment trouble between the races, to look at the Detroit area where a fist fight between a negro and a white man precipitated many deaths and filled the hospitals with wounded people and the jails with arrested persons, only TWO of whom were in any way involved in the trouble. I invite them to view the looted stores, the burned homes and the wrecked cars. I invite these do-gooders to review the whole history of "race trouble" and see if there has EVER been a major outbreak in the South. ALL "race riots" have occurred in the North.

Northern people—who do not understand the negro and do not try to—USE the negro in times like these when labor is scarce, and ABUSE him the rest of the time.

How can a person, fresh from the North, off hand solve a problem that the good white people and the good negroes of the South have sought to solve ever since the negroes were freed?

As for social intercourse between the negro and the white man, there is no more desire on the part of the negro for this than there is on the part of the white person.

The good negro of the South knows who is his friend, and he does not need any advice from the do-gooders who are here today and gone tomorrow.

Analyze, if you will, the cost in lives and blood of ANY "race riot", and you will find that, as a rule, about five times as many negroes are killed and wounded as white people, and that those killed are of about the same ratio. The negroes ALWAYS lose, if for no other reasons than that they are numerically inferior.

The negro has made more progress in his eighty years of freedom than any other emancipated race in the history of the world. He is continuing to make progress. No region in the world offers him more opportunity for PERMANENT advancement than the land of his birth—the Southland.

I Grenada County Ever Needed To Retain The Services of An Experienced District Attorney, THAT TIME IS NOW

A Serious Address to the People of Grenada County:

There is no necessity to remind you of the war time activities now headquartered in your county. Area and population considered, you have assumed a lion's share of the burdens and responsibilities of war. For this you are to be heartily commended.

At the same time, in the face of such abnormal circumstances, the safety of your lives, persons, and property depends, as always, upon the effective enforcement of the law. Grenada county is composed of a citizenship who are overwhelmingly in favor of law and order.

We are sobered by the recollection that great crime waves have always followed great wars. We experience feelings of even greater concern when we hear of the recent violence in Detroit, Beaumont, and, on a smaller scale, in our own beloved State. The law abiding, home-loving, God-fearing people of Grenada County, Mississippi, cannot afford to close eyes and "toughs" to these important problems. The proper disposition of these perplexing questions will require experience, hard work, and ability. Of this we can be certain, although none can tell what future occasions may arise.

Four years ago, the people elected a young, able, vigorous, hard-working District Attorney. Over two-hundred opponents, he carried five of the seven counties in the district. Grenada was one of that five. In the second primary, he carried twelve of the sixteen precincts in Grenada County. He is a candidate for re-election and his record of service to Grenada County eminently justifies the faith, reposed in him. In the first three years of his term, he prosecuted 19 cases before a jury in the Grenada County Circuit Court. There were 16 verdicts of guilty, 2 verdicts of not guilty, and one jury failed to agree on a verdict. There were 45 pleas of guilty, as a result of which the County was not put to any expense for prosecution. There were 26 penitentiary sentences, 19 jail sentences, and 25 fines. THIS IS HIS RECORD IN GRENADA COUNTY ALONE. It shows that this young District Attorney knows when to prosecute and how to prosecute. We believe that record to be a source of pride and satisfaction to the law abiding citizens of Grenada County, (note: error) although there may be some (not in sympathy with the law) who will try to criticize it.

It is not good business, in war time or any other time, to fire a man who has just completed his training and who is in position to deliver the best possible service. To do so is to waste his experience, increase the expense of enforcing the law, and subject the public safety to hazards and pitfalls that would trap an inexperienced district attorney.

J. E. COLEMAN
DISTRICT ATTORNEY

It is not good business, in war, or any other time, to adopt a policy of refusing an endorsement for an honest, able public official who has worked night and day and who has spared no personal expense or personal inconvenience in his efforts to make a servant in whom the people would be well pleased.

A PRUDENT REGARD FOR THE FUTURE REMINDS US THAT THIS IS NO TIME TO EXPERIMENT WITH THE UNTRIED AND INEXPERIENCED.

We appeal to you to do in 1943 as you did in 1939.

Vote for J. E. Coleman for District Attorney.

His Ability, His Honesty, and his Desire to Serve have been tested in the fiery furnace of actual service. He has not been found wanting.

Respectfully submitted,

HOUSEHOLD MEMOS... by Lynn Chambers

Use a Water-Bath for Canning Tomatoes, Fruits (See Recipe Below)

Try Canning!

Many homemakers who have never done so before will be hard at work doing some old-fashioned "putting up" this summer. Not only will it be economical to put up your own Victory garden's surplus, but also it will be a vital step in stretching those precious points next winter.

Canning's simpler today and much of the spoilage that occurred formerly can be prevented if the homemaker checks the causes of spoilage. There's a reason for every type of spoilage, and what's more important, every one of them can be prevented if she's careful.

First, it's not smart to use leftover produce that you wouldn't eat at the table. Select only prime fruit and vegetables in perfect condition. Best quality goes into commercial canning, and so it should for home canning. Get out into the garden early in the morning to get vegetables and fruits and can immediately, or if you market, tie a bandana on your hair and go out early in the morning to get your produce while it's still fresh.

Cleanliness is another important factor. Remember that food spoils for other reasons than that the jar is not air-tight. More spoilage than you ever dreamed of can result from not washing the food properly and discarding bruised or imperfect vegetables and fruits. Be sure to peel the food, if it is to be peeled, so that no dirt and the bacteria that lurk in it get rubbed in the product as it is peeled.

Work as quickly as possible with the food once it's started on its way to the can. Flat sour, which occurs in vegetables, can often develop in vegetables, for example, if the jars in which the pre-cooked food is placed stand too long before processing. Too much delay in handling food from one step to the other may cause a great loss of vitamins and mineral.

Do as much preparation ahead of time as possible like checking equipment and getting together jars which are examined for imperfections and nicks. Wash all jars and caps in soapy suds (not in cool dish-water after the breakfast dishes) and scald or sterilize them.

Select Day for Canning. If there's a huge quantity of food to be canned, it would be a good idea to round up as many friends and neighbors to help, and to do the canning on a community basis. In many towns, pressure cookers which

Lynn Says

Successful Canning: It is easy to do the right thing with foods to be put up in cans if you know the principles and follow directions. Follow the slogan, "Two hours from garden to kettle." Use only fresh, firm, ripe rather than over-ripe produce. Wash all foods carefully before attempting any preparation.

Check jars, rubbers if used, and caps along with equipment before you start canning. Work at the range as much as possible to save time between steps. Have sterile jars on one side of range, fill them from kettle on stove (or from colander near stove, if using fruit which is not pre-cooked), and place immediately in water bath or pressure cooker or oven.

Jars should be washed in a pan of soapy suds and scalded, inverted on a clean towel until used.

A guide to the Arctic Circle will now accompany every army air forces pilot required to fly across the top of the world, the war department announces. "Arctic Emergencies," a little orange-and-blue booklet, will be carried in each flier's emergency kit on future flights far north.

The booklet was prepared by the safety education division of the army air forces flight control command, and is a companion piece to "Jungle and Desert Emergencies," distributed early in May. Like its predecessor, it possesses an especially durable cover and water-resistant pages. Authorities on all phases of life in the Arctic were consulted in its preparation.

The guide tells how to make suitable goggles to ward off treacherous snow blindness, how to increase the warmth and protective qualities of regulation flying suits, what to eat and how to cook it.

Dietary tips for the flier forced grounded north of the tree line are plentiful and varied. They include the warning that polar bear liver is poisonous. Also, to the pilot who might be tempted to live on rabbits because they are abundant, the booklet points out that such a course will produce "rabbit starvation" and possible death.

AUDIT OF TAX COLLECTOR

The results of our examination of the tax collector's accounts are presented in Exhibit "C", Page 25 of this report. The collections of advalorem, poll and privilege taxes and settlements, with the proper treasuries, therefore were subjected to a satisfactory verification.

LAND REDEMPTION REVENUE

Revenues arising from the redemption of lands previously forfeited to the State for unpaid taxes were verified by an audit of the records kept by the Chancery Clerk. We are of the opinion that such collections of tax revenues have been properly accounted for.

OTHER DEPARTMENTS

Other departments and accounts of your county government were subjected to such inspection as to enable us to verify the legal propriety and the proper authorization of expenditures, and whether or not proper accounting had been made for any funds collected by the officials thereof.

CONCLUSION

We wish to express our appreciation to the county officials and employees for the many courtesies and cooperation extended our representative during the audit. If we can be of any further service at any time, please call on us.

Respectfully submitted,
STATE AUDITING DEPARTMENT

When Your Back Hurts -

And Your Strength and Energy Is Below Par

It may be caused by disorder of kidney function that permits poisonous waste to accumulate. For truly many people feel tired, weak and miserable when the kidneys fail to remove excess acids and other waste matter from the blood. You may suffer sagging backache, rheumatic pains, headaches, dizziness, getting up nights, leg pains, swelling, sometimes frequent and scanty urination with smearing and burning in urination that something is wrong with the kidneys or bladder. There should be no doubt that prompt treatment is wiser than neglect. Use Doan's Pills. It is better to rely on a medicine that has won countrywide approval than on something less favorably known. ## TO THE CITIZENS OF GRENADA COUNTY:

You will be interested to know that I have passed the physical examination and have been accepted by the Armed Forces of the United States and will report for duty within the near future.

Therefore, it becomes my duty to make a statement to you with reference to the CONTINUANCE of my campaign for the office of Chancery Clerk.

In this connection I wish to say to you that if I am elected my wife will be appointed Chief Deputy Clerk. Humbly and modestly let me say that I believe she is thoroughly capable of giving you the service you should have. Her training in High School, two years at Grenada College, a graduate of Greenwood Business College in Bookkeeping, Shorthand, Typewriting and Business Law and seven years experience as Bookkeeper, Clerk and Stenographer would give you a person well qualified to carry on your affairs in that important office. There would also be hired another competent deputy to help her give efficient service.

You, of course, know that my pay as a Private in the Army will be $50 per month. I am trying to pay for a home and the care of a family and need your help. If you can see your way clear to assist me I will be forever grateful to you.

The other two men in this race are fine fellows and I consider them my friends. I am not running AGAINST either of them—I am running FOR the office.

Not being an old hand at running for office, I need your counsel, your help, your advice and your vote on August 3rd.

Sincerely your friend,
